

INDIAN SOCIETY OF CRITICAL CARE MEDICINE

ELECTION DISPUTES RESOLUTION DECLARATION

In case of any disputes regarding the elections, below procedure will be followed by ISCCM to resolve the disputes.

ELECTION DISPUTES

1. In the first instance, any complaint pertaining to any process of election must be lodged with the Election Commission along with documentary proof of any irregularity before the start of the counting procedure. No complaint other than that of the counting procedure shall be entertained once the counting procedure has started. Complaints pertaining to irregularities web based online election process, if any, must be lodged in writing by the contestant with the Election Commission or immediately after the web based online election process or within fifteen days after the completion of web based online election process. Election contestants can request to see the post-election day wise voting details of themselves or their opponents for their post. This will be through email addressed to Election Commission.
2. A 3 member Election Redressal Committee nominated by President, immediate past president and president elect comprising of members of (i) good repute, (ii) having membership of more than 15 years (iii) with no personal interest in present election as well as in the election in the past 1 year and future 1 year and (iv) they should not be in the present EC or co-opted member in any other sub-committee, would review the evidence provided by the complainant and would give its ruling within 15 days.
3. If the complainant remains dis-satisfied with the decision of the Election Redressal Committee, he / she may ask for hearing by the mediation panel.
4. A 3-member Election mediation committee nominated by President, immediate past president & president elect comprising of members of good repute, having membership of more than 15 years with no personal interest in present election as well as in the election in the past 1 year and future 1 year and they should not be a present EC or co-opted member in any other sub-committee, would review the evidence provided by the complainant and would give its ruling within 15 days.
5. If the complainant remains dis-satisfied with the decision of the Election mediation committee, he / she may ask for hearing by the arbitration panel. The arbitration panel will be nominated by President, immediate past president & president elect. In any case, complete panel of arbitrators should be acceptable to all parties holding stake in the election process.
6. The Panel of Arbitrators shall comprise of
7. 2 members of good repute, having membership of more than 15 years with no personal interest in present election as well as in the election in the past 1 year and future 1 year and they should not be a present EC or co-opted member in any other sub-committee
8. Retired High Court Judge / Eminent Jurist

INDIAN SOCIETY OF CRITICAL CARE MEDICINE

9. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.
10. The seat of Arbitration shall be at the Head Quarters of the Society at Mumbai & the process should complete within 30 days.
11. The decision of the panel of Arbitrators shall be final and binding on all parties.
12. The National Executive Committee of the Society shall determine the fees payable to the non-ISCCM arbitrators
13. The fee payable to the Arbitrators shall be borne by the contestant seeking arbitration if he / she loses arbitration. However, society will bear this cost if he wins it. However, the candidate cannot claim any compensation whatsoever.
14. However, no candidate holding stake in election either appellant or defendant can claim any compensation, or any allowances related to any head during this redressal or arbitration process.
15. Once results are declared, it cannot be changed by any committee including election committee. It can be changed only following decision by either a Redressal Committee, or mediation panel or arbitration panel.

Dr. B K Rao
Election Commissioner

Dr. Muralidhar Kanchi
Election Commissioner

Dr. Subhash Todi
Election Commissioner

I have understood the procedure of dispute resolution for election 2023 and will abide with the same. I accept the terms and conditions of above procedure.

Candidate Signature

Candidate Name:

Date: