

Dr Anand Nikalje, MD (Medicine)

25 years of experience in critical care Medicine.

EC member of ISCCM for 4 years (2terms) from 2013 -2017 Organised state critical care conference at Aurangabad in 2014.

Presently Working as a Director, MCRI, ICU, chief Coordinator, Covid Unit, & Associate Professor, Medicine, MGM Medical college, Aurangabad.

Done Post graduation in Medicine from SRTR Medical college (Rural Medical college), Ambajogai, Dist. Beed.

After M D worked with Dr Shirish Prayag sir in Pune and received basic training in critical care.

Organised 2nd state critical care conference, at Aurangabad in 2014 one of the best attended conference.

Pioneer in starting Cadaver organ donation in Marathwada region

Instructor of BLS, ACLS, ITLS courses and BASIC course.

NABH Assessor for entry level hospitals.

Conducted many training programs for Physicians, intensivists, residents, nurses and even lay people.

Faculty in many national and state conferences since last 20 years.

Lead Author in Update in critical care Medicine 2017. Written chapter on "Aerosolised antibiotic".

Social responsibilities: Written articles in newspapers, interviews in news channel, Radio and newspapers about Covid 19 pandemic.

ICU (ICU on wheels) Ambulance services: Managing 2 ambulances " ICU on wheels" service provided by Lion's club of midtown, Aurangabad.

HALO Medical Foundation: Trustee of HALO (Health & Auto Learning Organization) Medical Foundation, Aurangabad. HALO, a NGO working for comprehensive health care in rural area.

Area of interest:

Nutrition in critically ill patients, Rational antibiotic use. Cost effectiveness in Indian ICUs.

My plan to take critical care to rural part of country, create interest in young doctors to become intensivists, well-staffed & equipped transport facility for critical patients.